Feb. 23 - Feb. 29

2007-2008 FAQs

What happens if I miss a lesson?

-Carrboro Music Studios has built in three make-up weeks that are spread across the year. Should a student miss a lesson, it can be made up at the regular lesson time during the next make-up week.

What if I miss more than three lessons during the year?

-Unfortunately due to schedule constraints, we can only offer three make-up lessons per year.

Can I reschedule my lesson if I can't make it at my scheduled time?

-With all the lessons on the schedule that instructors are required to teach it is impossible to rearrange the schedule to accommodate missed lessons. The make-up weeks built into the schedule allow for three missed lessons a year to be made up.

Why is tuition the same amount every month though some months have different numbers of lessons?

-The tuition is the same amount each month because you are actually paying for an established program with costs averaged across the year. This allows the inclusion of holidays and make-up weeks into the CMStudios calendar without different tuition amounts for different months. Your tuition fees hold a fixed lesson slot. No matter which day of the week your slot falls on, there are 46 lessons (43 regularly scheduled and 3 make-up) during the year.

What about weather closing?

-Should local schools be closed due to adverse weather, CMStudios will be closed as well. Any lessons missed can be made-up only during the make-up weeks.
